

JOIN PRIME STEM

WHAT IS PRIME STEM?

PRIME STEM is a customized program at UCF for 124 scholars pursuing a degree in the STEM disciplines. It provides opportunities for academic and personal development that will motivate students toward the successful completion of their college education. PRIME STEM is one of four federally funded TRIO programs housed in the UCF SDES TRIO Center.

WHO DO WE SERVE?

- STEM majors (Biology, Biomedical Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Sciences, Informational Technology)
- First-Generation Students
- Students that meet federal low-income guidelines
- Students with a documented disability
- APPLY HERE!

ACADEMIC

- One-on-one Tutoring
- Early Class Registration
- Academic Coaching

ADVISING

- Supplemental Academic Advising
- Assistance in Applying for Financial Aid and Scholarships
- Guidance for Graduate and Professional School Preparation

PROFESSIONAL

- Networking Opportunities
- Student Success Workshops
- Financial Literacy Training
- Leadership Development

